

March News

March 1st was a beautiful day, which has me a little worried about how the month will end. Is there any truth behind “In like a lamb, Out like a lion”? Only time will tell! Either way I’m sure that March will continue to be a busy and exciting month of learning activities at Emily Carr! We wish everyone a safe and happy March Break next week. See everyone on March 18th.

Our Graduating class of 2019 is having a Kelsey’s Kick back night Tuesday, March 5th. By mentioning Emily Carr they will donate 20% of the food purchases to the school to help fund the Graduation party and year end trip. Thank you for your support!

The London and Middlesex Health Unit will be completing dental screening the week of March 18th. Please look for the notice in your child’s backpack. If you have any questions or concerns don’t hesitate to contact the school.

Friday, March 22nd is Crazy Hair/Hat day at Emily Carr. seeing everyone’s creativity.

We look forward to

We will also be celebrating Earth Hour Day on March 29th by wearing black and limiting our use of lights/electronics. Our ECO Club will be providing school service announcements so that we can learn ways to work together to protect our environment!
